TAGLaw Appoints Greg Noschese to Advisory Board

01.18.18

Noschese of Munsch Hardt appointed to Advisory Board of international alliance of independent law firms.

Dallas (January 18, 2018) - TAGLaw® recently appointed Shareholder and Litigation Section Head Greg Noschese of Munsch Hardt Kopf & Harr, P.C. ("Munsch Hardt") as a member of its Advisory Board. The Advisory Board, comprised of prominent lawyers from around the world, is a vital component of TAGLaw's membership, which encompasses 160 independent member firms throughout 96 countries. TAGLaw is one of the four largest legal alliances in the world.

Various roles of the Advisory Board include assisting TAGLaw's management in reviewing prospective new members, offering feedback for the planning of international conferences and providing valuable guidance on future plans and initiatives. The Advisory Board convenes meetings at TAGLaw's semi-annual international conferences.

"I am honored to serve TAGLaw and its members. TAGLaw and its members have continually trusted Munsch Hardt with their clients and colleagues, and we are grateful for the opportunity to have trusted advisors throughout the world who stand ready to serve and protect our clients' interests. As an Advisory Board member, I look forward to sustaining and growing friendships and partnerships that are locally known and globally connected."

"We are honored to welcome Greg as a new Advisory Board member," said Richard Attisha, President & CEO of TAGLaw and TAG Alliances. "Greg is a leader in his firm and community, and I'm confident that the 17,000 professionals throughout TAG Alliances will be well-served by Greg's advice and counsel to our organization. Before I joined TAGLaw as President, I served as a member of the Advisory Board and I know Greg will benefit both personally and professionally from this experience."

The complete TAGLaw Advisory Board includes:

- Jean-Christophe Beaury of Racine (Paris, France);
- Pablo Brusco of Brons & Salas (Argentina);
- Jim Dankenbring of Spencer Fane LLP (Missouri, USA);
