Shareholders Dan Pipitone and Ken Bullock to Discuss Labor Matters at TWC Conference

JULY 19-20, 2018

Texas Business Conferences Employment Law Update

Shareholders Dan Pipitone and Ken Bullock will each present at the upcoming Texas Workforce Commission Conference in Arlington, Texas. The two-day conference will help attendees learn relevant state and federal employment laws that are essential to efficiently managing their business and employees.

Pipitone will present on matters related to the Fair Labor and Standards Act (FLSA), including a look into Texas employment law, as well as legal hiring practices. Bullock will discuss Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) requirements, laws and regulations as they relate to attendees' business.

Continuing Education Credit is available for CPAs, attorneys and HR Professionals (SHRM and HRCI). More information, as well as registration options, can be accessed here.
