

In The News

Munsch Hardt Shareholder Appointed to Arbitration Board

03.06.18

Texas Lawbook

Munsch Hardt recently announced that Dallas shareholder Jeff Dunn has been appointed by NACHA – The Electronic Payments Association to its national arbitration board. His term, which began in January, will extend through December 2020.

Dunn represents banks, other financial institutions, nonbank creditors and debtors in complex corporate lending transactions and restructurings, federal and state consumer finance law compliance, and payments law and related financial services regulatory compliance.

The full article can also be viewed here.

Primary Contacts

Jeffrey Dunn

Dallas
214.855.7588
jdunn@munsch.com

Related Practices

Finance
Electronic Payment Systems

Related Industries

Financial Services