Guide to the Financing of Renewable Energy Projects: Analysis and Review of Related Power Purchase Agreements

2019

American Bar Association

This comprehensive, 3-volume, 3,000-page set provides a platform for investment in renewable energy in the U.S. and 59 jurisdictions worldwide. Covering North and South America, Europe, Africa, Asia, and Middle East, this guide provides an analysis of the regulatory framework for renewable energy and an analysis of related power purchase agreements which can be tailored to meet the requirements of a participating jurisdiction. Included are sample Power Purchase Agreements (PPAs) which are the critical document required to finance renewable energy projects.

David R. Roth was a contributing author to Financing Renewable Energy Projects: A Global Analysis and Review of Related Power Purchase Agreements. The book can be found for purchase on the ABA website.
