Munsch Hardt Congratulates Its Associate on Passing the Texas Bar

11.05.15

Munsch Hardt is pleased to announce that Andrew “Drew” Palmer has passed the bar and is now licensed in Texas. After participating in the firm’s 2014 Summer Associate Program, the young attorney joined Munsch Hardt as a first year associate in September 2015. The addition of this associate adds depth to the firm’s transactional practice.

“On behalf of the firm, I congratulate Drew on his recent admission to the Texas State Bar,” said Phil Appenzeller, CEO of Munsch Hardt. “Throughout the firm’s Summer Associate Program, this individual exhibited excellence in his work product and a passion for serving clients. We have a great deal of confidence in his future, and look forward to watching him grow into an outstanding attorney.”
