

Speech

Historical Tax Credits: How They Work

12.02.15

NAREC 2015 Financial Management & Operations Conference

Munsch Hardt attorneys Glenn Callison and Phill Geheb will be speaking at the 2015 NAREC Financial Management & Operations Conference on a panel entitled “Historical Tax Credits: Overview of how they work and how Granite [Properties] utilized them on a recent acquisition.” The presentation took place on Wednesday, December 2, 2015, during the 2015 NAREC Financial Management & Operations Conference, which is a two-day conference in Dallas, offering an informal setting that allows for interactive discussions on topics that members deal with on a day-to-day basis. For more information on this topic or the conference, please contact Glenn Callison at gcallison@munsch.com.

Primary Contacts

Glenn Callison

Dallas
214.855.7557
gcallison@munsch.com

Related Practices

Real Estate
Tax
Public-Private Partnerships
Real Estate Finance

Related Industries

Financial Services
Real Estate