Munsch Hardt's Legal Alliance TAGLaw Awarded Elite Ranking in Chambers Global 2013

03.19.13

Munsch Hardt has announced that their legal alliance, TAGLaw®, has been recognized as “Elite” in the Chambers Global 2013 rankings guide for legal networks. As a member of TAGLaw, Munsch Hardt has access to over 145 independent member firms operating out of more than 300 offices in over 80 countries. TAGLaw is one of more than 30 global legal networks and alliances, but they are one of only six to receive the highest ranking of “Elite” in Chambers Global.

"Munsch Hardt Kopf & Harr is a long term and proud member of TAGLaw. We have enjoyed outstanding benefits from this affiliation and through our relationships with TAGLaw members around the world." Said Steve Harr, Shareholder and Munsch Hardt Founding Partner. "It is an absolute blessing to have the confidence we gain from access to talented lawyers around the world. This confidence is translated to our clients who are the ultimate beneficiaries of our TAGLaw membership."

In selecting networks for their Elite award status, Chambers pays particular attention to the quality of the firms in the network and to their global reach. TAGLaw, with its presence in over 80 countries has leading firms in each jurisdiction providing legal services to companies ranging from the Fortune 1000 to local businesses. With experience in more than 20 practice areas and dozens of industries, TAGLaw offers a formidable capability to its member's clients.

"Chambers is one of the premiere rankings guides in the legal industry, and we have utilized it in our research efforts to help find the most qualified members for TAGLaw." Said Robert Sattin, President of TAGLaw. "It is only fitting that Chambers has chosen to rank legal networks and alliance since they have substantially impacted the legal marketplace by offering firms and their clients access to legal services around the world. We are honored to receive this distinguished recognition, and feel it is a tribute to the quality of firms who are members of the TAGLaw alliance."
