Munsch Hardt Expands Real Estate, Litigation and Corporate Practices

09.02.14

Munsch Hardt proudly announced the continued growth of its Real Estate, Business Litigation and Corporate practice groups with the addition of two new associates.

“As summer associates, both of these young lawyers exhibited excellence in their work product and a passion for serving clients. We are excited to have them on board, and we are confident that their fresh insights will contribute to the momentum we are experiencing within the firm and throughout the state,” said Phil Appenzeller, CEO of Munsch Hardt.

The seven associates joining the firm are:

- Claire Carroll: Business Litigation

Graduating cum laude from Baylor University School of Law, Carroll was a member of the Order of Barristers and participated in a number of academic organizations including the Administrative Law Moot Court Team, the Adoption Law Moot Court Team and the Baylor Entertainment Law Society. Carroll obtained her undergraduate degree from the University of Texas at Austin, where she graduated with special honors in the Plan II Honors Program.

- Jacklyn (“Jackie”) Dyer: Real Estate

Graduating summa cum laude from South Texas College of Law, Dyer served as the Editor-in-Chief for the South Texas Law Review (2013-2014), was a member of the Order of the Laytae and received the CALI Excellence for the Future Award® in Federal Income Taxation, Professional Responsibility, Texas Pretrial Procedure and Criminal Law. Dyer obtained her undergraduate degree from the University of California Los Angeles.
