Two Munsch Hardt Lawyers Named Among Houston's Top Lawyers

6/15/2009

Munsch Hardt, a law firm with over 100 attorneys and offices in Dallas, Houston and Austin, Texas, announced that Mary W. Koks and Fred Wahrlich have been named among the "Top Lawyers" by H Texas. H Texas publishes a list of Houston based attorneys by polling their peers and the community at large each annum. The final list can be seen in the May/June 2009 issue.

Mary W. Koks

Mary is Board Certified in Business Bankruptcy and has a Master of Law in Natural Resources, Energy and the Environment with more than 26 years of experience in a practice that is focused on environmental compliance and litigation. Mary received her Juris Doctor from South Texas College of Law, her Master of Arts in Government and her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of South Carolina.

Fred Wahrlich

Fred has represented individuals and businesses for more than 20 years in a wide variety of litigation matters before both state and federal courts, as well as having served as Assistant General Counsel to an independent oil and gas company. Fred received his Juris Doctor, graduating magna cum laude, from South Texas College of Law, where he served Associate Editor in Chief of the South Texas Law Review, was inducted into the Order of Lytae and Order of Barristers, and was the Executive Director for the South Board of Advocates. He obtained his Bachelor of Arts, graduating with high honors, from American Technical Institute.
