Five Munsch Hardt Attorneys Achieve Texas Rising Stars Honors

3/10/2009

Five attorneys at Munsch Hardt Kopf & Harr, P.C., a Texas based law firm with over 100 attorneys and offices in Dallas, Houston and Austin, have been named to the 2009 list of Texas "Rising Stars," which was published in the April 2009 issue of Texas Monthly. James R. Ketchum, Nolan C. Knight, Lynn Chuang Kramer, Timothy (Tim) A. Million, Gregory C. Noschese, Jay H. Ong, Ross H. Parker and Davor Rukavina are among those honored.

Published since 1998, "Rising Stars" recognizes the top up-and-coming attorneys in the state of Texas who are 40 years old or younger, or who have been practicing law for 10 years or less. Polling, research and selection are performed by Key Professional Media, Inc.

Nolan C. Knight

Nolan's practice focuses on advising and counseling clients on compliance with environmental laws and regulations and litigation, both civil and criminal, related to environmental matters. He has practiced in the environmental and regulatory area for over six years and has represented a wide range of clients in business, manufacturing and the private sector. Nolan received his Juris Doctor from Loyola University School of Law and his Bachelor of Science, graduating cum laude, from Xavier University of Louisiana.

Gregory C. Noschese

Greg is a Shareholder in the Business Litigation group, which consists of over 40 attorneys in Dallas, Houston and Austin. His practice focus is on construction litigation and real estate litigation, including contract disputes, land use litigation, boundary disputes, landlord/tenant litigation and commercial litigation where he handles a broad range of issues, including consumer protection, bankruptcy litigation and Deceptive Trade Practices Act (DTPA). Greg received his Juris Doctor, graduating magna cum laude, from Texas Tech University School of Law and his Bachelor of Arts, graduating magna cum laude, from The Catholic University of America.

Jay H. Ong

Jay works within the Insolvency, Restructuring & Creditors' Rights group. He concentrates his practice on bankruptcy, reorganization and creditors' rights as well as corporate finance and commercial litigation. He has extensive experience representing various parties in bankruptcy and large business reorganizations, including senior lenders, trustees, debtors, committees, trade creditors, bond holders, insurers and receivers as well as commercial defendants. Jay received his Juris Doctor from Cornell Law School and his Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy, with honors, from The University of Texas at Austin.

Ross H. Parker

Ross has practiced law for over 10 years at Munsch Hardt and works primarily on complex commercial litigation matters. In that capacity, he is responsible for handling a broad range of disputes, including securities litigation, director and officer litigation, and complex commercial litigation. A large portion of Ross' practice is focused on representing trustees and creditors' committees in bankruptcy related litigation. Ross received his Juris Doctor, graduating cum laude, from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law and his Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy from Southern Methodist University.

Davor Rukavina

Davor is an Associate in the Insolvency, Restructuring & Creditors' Rights group, having joined Munsch Hardt after completing a clerkship for the Honorable Robert L. Jones, United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Northern District of Texas, during which time the court handled numerous complex issues and tried a wide variety of suits and proceedings. Davor received his Juris Doctor, graduating cum laude, from Texas Tech University School of Law and his Bachelor of Arts in History from Whitman College.
