Munsch Hardt is Poised for Growth and Expansion with Move to New Houston Office Space

01.22.14

As a sign of continued growth, Munsch Hardt today announced the opening of its new Houston office, located on the 27th floor in historic Pennzoil Place.

“Our strategic move to Pennzoil Place signifies Munsch Hardt’s focus on growth and expansion. With the ability to now double our capacity in Houston, the Firm is investing for the long term,” said Phil C. Appenzeller, Jr., CEO of Munsch Hardt Kopf & Harr, PC. “We are committed to providing our clients with innovative focus and value driven results, while further enhancing our visibility across Texas, and nationally.”

The Firm’s new Houston office in Pennzoil Place will continue focusing on its core practice areas, including: Real Estate; Health Care; Business Litigation; Restructuring & Creditor’s Rights; Bankruptcy and Immigration. The office is located at:

Munsch Hardt Kopf & Harr, PC
Pennzoil Place, North Tower
700 Milam Street, Suite 2700
Houston, Texas 77002

Pennzoil Place is considered to be a significant work of architecture in the United States, exclusively designed by renowned architects Phillip Johnson and John Burgee. Completed in 1975, the unique trapezoidal silhouette shape made Pennzoil Place the first skyscraper of the Post-Modern Era.

From inception to expansion to the ultimate disposition of a business, Munsch Hardt provides its clients wide-ranging legal counsel, navigating each step with in-depth knowledge and responsive action. The Firm’s attorneys are known for offering high levels of expertise and providing clients with a personal and focused approach.

Most recently, Munsch Hardt was recognized as one of the “Best Law Firms” in the National, Dallas and Houston rankings of the 2014 edition of U.S. News – Best Lawyers, “Best Law Firms.”
