

Press Release

Munsch Hardt Ranked No. 13 in The Dallas Morning News' 2013 Top 100 Places to Work

11.08.13

Munsch Hardt was recently named one of the Top 100 Places to Work 2013 by The Dallas Morning News. Munsch Hardt ranked No. 13 in the Midsize Company category.

Munsch Hardt was chosen as a Top Place to Work based on an independently conducted anonymous survey of its employees by The Dallas Morning News' research partner, Workplace Dynamics. The survey asked for input on several areas of the workplace including direction, execution, career, conditions, managers, work/life balance and pay and benefits.

"We are extremely proud to be ranked as one of the Top 100 Places to Work in Dallas," said Glenn Callison, CEO of Munsch Hardt Kopf & Harr, P.C. "We pride ourselves on doing things differently at Munsch Hardt, and work hard to provide a unique and balanced work environment for all of our employees. This is a huge vote of confidence from our team, and we are so appreciative of their continued support and dedication."

This is the fifth annual Top 100 Places to Work survey. Winners were announced during the annual luncheon held on Friday, Nov. 8, at the Omni Hotel in Dallas.