Russ Munsch Named Leader in Their Field by Chambers and Partners, Leading Research and Ranking Organization in the Legal Profession

3/21/2005

Russell Munsch has been named Leader in their Field by Chambers and Partners, an organization that researches and ranks attorneys all over the world through client and peer interviews.

Chambers and Partners conducts in-depth interviews with clients and attorneys throughout the United States. Based on this research, Chambers and Partners then ranks firms and individual attorneys on a scale of one to six in the following categories: technical legal ability, professional conduct, client service, commercial awareness/acuteness, diligence, commitment, and other qualities most valued by clients. The rankings are independent and objective and inclusion in the rankings is based solely on the results of the research.

Russell Munsch, a founding shareholder of Munsch Hardt, is a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute, the American Bar Association, the State Bar of Texas (Business Bankruptcy section), the Dallas Bar Association and the Travis County Bar Association. His practice focuses on reorganization and creditors' rights, bankruptcy, international insolvency and commercial litigation. He represents financial institutions, bank groups and significant creditors, debtors, creditor committees and entities acquiring assets from troubled organizations. He has served as Bankruptcy Trustee and Examiner in both Chapter 11 and Chapter 7 cases.
