Munsch Hardt Acquires Respected Immigration Attorney

12.19.11

Munsch Hardt is pleased to announce the addition of immigration lawyer Irina B. Plumlee as shareholder. Irina has extensive experience in immigration law. The firm's new immigration practice will be led by Irina and will benefit Munsch Hardt's clients throughout Texas and nationally.

"Irina adds an exciting new dimension to our firm with their deep understanding of the immigration practice area," stated Glenn Callison, the firm's CEO.

About joining Munsch Hardt, Irina commented, "I am happy about becoming part of Munsch Hardt's team and offering clients both immigration expertise and outstanding capabilities of the full service firm."

Irina's immigration practice focuses on business and family immigration, including international executive and managerial personnel transfers, U.S. work visas for professional workers, and employment and family-based permanent immigration proceedings, as well as on employers' I-9 compliance, and fairness in employment practices. Chambers USA has recognized Irina with their Leaders in Their Field designation for the past three years.
