Munsch Hardt Recognized as 2017 Immigration Law Firm of the Year - Texas by Corporate INTL

02.20.17

Munsch Hardt is pleased to announce it was recently named the 2017 “Immigration Law Firm of the Year – Texas” by Corporate INTL magazine. The award merits leading advisers from around the world and commemorates firms for providing excellent service and expertise to their clients throughout the year.

Firms are selected by an independent research team at Corporate INTL that identifies candidates based on service range, business type, geographical location, and the types of services provided. Winners are then selected by an independent awards panel.

Munsch Hardt’s Immigration team encompasses more than 40 years of experience in corporate and family immigration services. The practice regularly manages a number of challenging immigration matters and identifies and implements innovative, cutting edge solutions for its clients. Recent representations include international personnel transfers for major companies, both non-immigrant and permanent immigration proceedings for key employees, multi-tier immigration planning for uniquely qualified specialists, and immigration filings for an international company’s most senior executive and key personnel. The team also assists U.S. companies with temporary work permits and visas for foreign jurisdictions, including Canada, Latin America and European countries.

Key members of the team include the following attorneys:

Dallas
