(DALLAS) Munsch Hardt Kopf & Harr, P.C. (Munsch Hardt) today announced its recognition among the 2017 “Top 100 Places to Work” by The Dallas Morning News, ranking No. 12 in the small company category (under 150 employees).

As the Firm’s fourth year of inclusion, Munsch Hardt was selected as one of the top workplaces based on an independently conducted anonymous survey in which employees provide insightful feedback about the Firm’s direction, execution, conditions, managers, work/life balance, as well as pay and benefits.

“Munsch Hardt makes a conscious effort to embolden an inclusive, diverse and exciting work environment for all its employees, and it’s because of this standard we are thrilled to be recognized as a top place to work in Dallas,” said Phil Appenzeller, CEO of Munsch Hardt Kopf & Harr. “As our fourth year on the list, we hope to continue our efforts in creating positive work atmospheres. It is our honor to serve employees and to enrich their at-work communities.”
