Overview

Dennis is the Chief Operating Officer of Munsch Hardt. Dennis has broad litigation experience in state and federal courts, arbitration proceedings and bankruptcy-related matters. He has subject matter expertise in insurance coverage, personal injury defense, telecommunications, securities fraud, commercial disputes, oil and gas, real estate, fair housing, health care, code enforcement, fiduciary malpractice, receiverships, bankruptcy and cross-border asset recovery. At present, his primary practice focus is on complex parallel civil and criminal proceedings arising from the investigative and enforcement efforts of the SEC, DOJ, FTC, CFTC, FINRA, TSSB and other agencies. In most cases, his work has aligned with the government, as he has served as and represented court-appointed fiduciaries, victim groups, or civil plaintiffs. However, he has also handled white-collar criminal defense matters, assisted with health care audits, responded to government investigations, and defended parties in civil proceedings having the potential for parallel criminal proceedings.
