Experience

Energy Immigration

Represents an international oil and gas company with immigration proceedings for executive and professional personnel. Recent accomplishments include extraordinary ability (O-1) based work permit and Green Card prosecution for the prominent industry executive.

Software Company Immigration

Successfully represented a software development company in complicated governmental Request for Evidence (RFE) for the company's manager. The manager had at least two prior immigration denials and this was his and the company's last chance to get him to come to the U.S. for a key project.

Construction Immigration

Represents an international construction company with regard to highly specialized and managerial intra-company personnel transfers. Recent accomplishments include a substantial amount of success with L-1B and L-1A proceedings.

Distribution Immigration

Represents a worldwide, leading authorized distributor of semiconductors and electronic components in its H-1B, permanent immigration and naturalization proceedings for professional and executive personnel. Employer consultations regarding and I-9 in-house audit services for the electronic components distribution business.

Health Care Immigration

Represents a non-profit company that operates a network of hospitals and related health care facilities in Texas, and its doctors, technical, IT and medical personnel with non-immigrant and permanent immigration proceedings planning and implementation through Green Card obtainment.

Educational Services Immigration

Represents a service provider to higher education institutions and universities, with obtaining key executive's PERM-based permanent immigration to the U.S.
