Overview

For more than 45 years working as a successful trial lawyer, Dick has tried more than 65 cases. He has handled cases in Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Florida, New York and California, representing clients in state and federal courts in various types of disputes, including complex commercial litigation, breach of contract, business break-ups, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, insurance, environmental, labor and employment, intellectual property, securities, personal injury and professional liability matters.

In addition to his complex commercial trial practice, Dick counsels clients and handles cases regarding employment contracts, terminations and separations, claims of discrimination and retaliation, breach of non-competition/non-solicitation/confidentiality agreements and theft of trade secrets. He also performs independent investigations for companies on a variety of issues.

Dick is committed to finding prompt and cost-effective solutions to his clients' problems. He is known for his ability to understand complex matters; identify the key issues; and develop, execute and assess strategies to accomplish his clients' goals.

Dick has taken industry courses in refining, refinery economics, practical drilling technology and well control. He obtained the International Association of Drilling Contractors (IADC) certification for well control at the supervisor level. Dick completed Harvard Law School's program on Negotiation and Leadership; Harvard Law School Master Class: Advanced Negotiation Strategies; the University of Houston A.A. White Dispute Resolution Center's comprehensive course in Commercial Arbitration (Domestic and International) and obtained a certificate in Advanced Arbitration Skills and A.A. White

Experience

Appellate Victory

Obtained a favorable summary judgment ruling in trial court for a client in a case that addressed a fundamental aspect of contract law – the doctrine of implied revocation. The main issue was whether a purported offer to settle a debt for a reduced sum was accepted before it was revoked. The case's rulings were appealed and reversed by the Court of Appeals. The Texas Supreme Court reversed and rendered judgment in our client's favor in January 2022..

Business Litigation

Representing plaintiffs in a suit seeking more than $150 MM for breach of contract, breach of trust, fraudulent transfer and promissory estoppel. U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas (Houston Division).

Breach of Contract

Represented the defendant in a breach of retail installment contract case. Received a favorable jury verdict in favor of our client. Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 1.

Breach of Fiduciary Duty

Represented the beneficiaries of an estate in a claim against the Trustee. Won a $30 MM jury verdict in our client's favor. U.S. District Court for the Central District of California (Los Angeles Division).

Business Litigation

Represented plaintiffs involved in the maritime industry in a land fraud case near Corpus Christi, Texas. Obtained a $22 MM jury verdict in favor of the client. 36th District Court of San Patricio County, Texas.

Business Litigation

Represented a manufacturing company in a $200 MM suit for breach of distributorship agreement. The judgment for our client was upheld on appeal. U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas (Houston Division) and Court of Appeals for Fifth Circuit.

Business Litigation

Represented the Judgment Creditor in the collection of a judgment. Our team seized assets, obtained TRO precluding the judgment creditor from moving any assets and collected the full amount of judgment. 281st District Court of Harris County, Texas.

Construction Litigation

Represented a refinery owner in a suit against a contractor to recover property damages and lost profits due to a fire at a refinery. Settled. U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas (Houston Division).

Construction Litigation

Represented a construction company in a suit brought by a contractor against the owner for failure to obtain builders' risk insurance for a horizontal directional drilling project. Settled with payment to our client. U.S. District Court for the District of South Carolina (Charleston Division).

Employment Law

Represented a software company whose President and CEO claimed the company terminated her without cause and she was entitled to severance under an employment agreement and to have stock repurchased under an LLC Agreement. Received an arbitration award in favor of our client. AAA Arbitration.

Employment Law

Represented the North America division of a multinational oil and gas company in an FLSA overtime, fraud, quantum meruit and breach of contract suit. Received a partial summary judgment for the client followed by a jury verdict and judgment. Affirmed on appeal. U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas (Houston Division).

Energy Litigation

Represented a manufacturer of blowout preventers (large, high-pressure valves used to control the flow of liquids and gases during well drilling operations), in a blowout case seeking $189 MM in damages. Settled. 15th Judicial District Court of Vermillion Parish.

Energy Litigation

Represented the manufacturer and designer of a jack up drilling vessel in a suit by the owner of the vessel arising out of the collapse of two legs of the vessel during jacking operations offshore Louisiana. Settled. Also represented insured in a subsequent dispute with insurer. Settled. U. S. District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana (New Orleans Division).

Fraudulent Transfer

Represented a large oil and gas company and the shareholders of a debtor in an adversary proceeding alleging fraudulent transfer, alter ego and piercing the corporate veil. Received a favorable judgment for the client after a bench trial. U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas (Corpus Christi Division).

Also represented the oil and gas company in related suits, including a garnishment trial that was later affirmed on appeal.

Intellectual Property

Represented a client in a suit for theft of trade secrets and unfair competition against a steel company. Case was dismissed with no payment or restrictions on the defendant. U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas (Houston Division).

Labor Law

Represented a brand of fuel stations as the defendant in a case asserting unfair labor practices in connection with the reduction of force and union election. After a three-week trial before an administrative law judge, a judgment was rendered for our client with respect to the reduction of force issues and against our client with respect to the election. National Labor Relations Board.
