Overview

Serving as Co-Chair of Munsch Hardt's Construction practice group, Bob focuses his practice on representing owners, general contractors, subcontractors, sureties and suppliers on matters such as commercial litigation, construction contract negotiations and disputes, construction defect lawsuits, insurance coverage matters and personal injury and toxic tort matters. He is also experienced in serving as outside general counsel in out-of-state litigation.

Prior to joining Munsch Hardt, Bob was a Director of the Construction and Surety section of a Texas-based law firm. In addition to his solid legal career, Bob also brings several years of construction management experience in commercial, heavy highway and industrial process construction for companies such as H. B. Zachry, W. S. Bellows and Austin Commercial.
