Conference Overview

The Briar Club | Thursday, September 18, 2025

In its fourth year, the Texas Health Care Transactions Conference (THTC) aims to connect more than 250 Health Care professionals, investors and governmental representatives to discuss the latest trends, impending legislation, valuation structures and deal forecasts for today's Health Care industry.

During the full-day conference, attendees will hear from approximately 30 Health Care leaders who will examine the latest business and legal issues involved in Health Care business transactions.

Our conference offers numerous networking opportunities, including breakfast, two breaks, lunch and an evening reception. Sponsors are encouraged to attend all conference activities as participation ensures visibility and recognition before, during and after the event.

About Our 2024 Event

In 2024, the THTC brought together more than 200 attendees from across the industry, including physicians and physician groups, health systems, billing companies, private equity and venture capital firms, investment banks, industry thought leaders, service providers and consultants.
